

TUMACACORI MISSION, NATIONAL MONU-MENT, ARIZONA

Established in 1690 by the Jesuit priest, Father Kino, the ruins of this structure show Spanish influence characteristic of all missions built throughout the Southwest and is a mute tribute to the thorough vandalism of the Apache Indians. You should see this old structure of rugged beauty.

Dear Janet:

You may have heard
my news thru home
by now. On my way to Calif + "points west."
How about some ideas
for a graduate present.
Meanwhile, good luck
We'll write more later.
Til then, aloha. Love
Wendell
